State Senator Jack Martins Visits the Village Village Thanks Martins for Road Grant

July 8, 2015 – On July 8, 2015, NY State Senator Jack Martins visited the Village to receive our thanks for the recent final approval for $50,000 in grant funds toward our capital project on The Waterway/The Neck. On hand to thank the Senator were Mayor Kenneth C. Riscica, Trustee Aida Ferman and Clerk-Treasurer Arlene Drucker.

After reviewing the project plans with the Senator, Mayor Riscica and Trustee Ferman took the Senator on a tour of the Village including the job site at The Waterway/The Neck.

In the course of discussing the needs in the Village, Mayor Riscica indicated that Cove Drive was the next road on our capital projects list. Senator Martins indicated that he would look into the availability of State grant money for that project.

Commenting on the matter, Mayor Kenneth C. Riscica said, “The Village is fortunate to have a good friend and advocate in Senator Jack Martins. We appreciate his follow through and commitment in bringing this assistance to our residents.”
