Mayor Riscica Hosts Five Manhasset Mayors to Meet with NCPD Precinct Commander
 New NCPD Resources Added in January 2016

On January 11, 2016, Mayor Kenneth C. Riscica hosted the five Manhasset Mayors in Village Hall for a working meeting with Commander John Berry from the NCPD Third Precinct. Commander Berry introduced two new NCPD resources for Manhasset. Representing the Villages were Flower Hill Mayor Elaine Phillips, Munsey Park Mayor Sean Haggerty, Plandome Trustee Don Richardson (for Mayor Lloyd Williams), Plandome Heights Mayor Kenneth C. Riscica and Plandome Manor Mayor Barbara Donno.

Commander Berry introduced these two new resources to the Mayors; (1) Deputy Inspector Gregory Abruzzo, a 30-year veteran is now the Deputy Inspector responsible for the “Three North” sector of the Precinct and (2) Carlos Rivera, the new Problem Oriented Policing (“POP”) officer for our area. Officer Rivera has been stationed in Manhasset at the Policing Center on Community Drive.

A full range of topics affecting the public safety of our residents was discussed, contact information for the new team was shared and action items were agreed upon during the two-hour long meeting. Among the topics discussed were public safety, crime statistics and prevention, rollout of new police officers, traffic and parking concerns and other matters.

Commenting on the matter, Flower Hill Mayor Elaine Phillips said, “We appreciate the time and attention of Commander Berry and his team.” Munsey Park Mayor Sean Haggerty added, “Problem Oriented Policing involves a close working relationship between the police and the community and we have that relationship.”

Under the leadership of Plandome Manor Mayor Barbara Donno, the five Manhasset Mayors will host a public safety meeting for village residents with the NCPD Community Affairs Division; that meeting is Wednesday, January 27, 2016, at 7:00 p.m. at Munsey Park School.
