Edmund Moores turns 102

Mayor Kenneth Riscica Joins Family for Birthday Celebration

May 22, 2016 - Surrounded by the warmth of his extended family, Plandome Heights resident Edmund Moores celebrated his 102nd birthday recently. The event was hosted by his adult children and was held at the Plandome Heights residence of daughter, Phyllis Sternemann, where Ed lives with Phyllis and grandchildren Nicole and Brian. Edmund recently attended Nicole's college graduation in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Moores grew up in Astoria, NY, the son of immigrant parents where he had a spirited youth and worked in many jobs in family and local businesses. Using skills he learned as a youth in Astoria, Mr. Moores went on to become a Baker, serving proudly in this time honored trade for over 45 years. During World War II, Edmund served with distinction in the Pacific Theater of Operations in the United States Navy as a Baker Third Class stationed in Hawaii and where, in his spare time, he made necklaces out of Hawaiian shells that his family proudly wears to this day. Edmund was married to his wife Rita for over 60 years raising two children and four grandchildren in their home in Bayside. Edmund moved into Plandome Heights to be with his daughter, a twenty year resident of the Village, and two grandchildren Nicole and Brian Stern in 2012.
