PLANDOME HEIGHTS NEWS

Trustees Proclaim June 22, 2014 for Plandome Heights Resident
 Johnathan Knox as he Earns The Eagle Scout Rank
 In Manhasset's Boy Scout Troop 97

The Board of Trustees of Plandome Heights declared Sunday, June 22, 2014 as a day of recognition for resident, Johnathan Knox, on the occasion of his Eagle Scout Court of Honor. In the Court of Honor, Johnathan, and five other Manhasset boys, were presented with Scouting's highest honor, the Eagle Scout award.

Johnathan is the son of Hon. Jayne Knox, former Trustee of the Village, and Michael Knox, Troop Chairman and former Civic Association Officer. Many officials from the State, Town, County and Village were on hand to honor the six boys. State Senator Jack Martins joined Mayor Riscica in honoring Johnathan.

The other five boys receiving their Eagle Scout rank and recognized by the Trustees include Austin Kulka, Tyler Lew, Thomas Moschitta, John Nikolaidis and John Ziosis.
