Mayor Kenneth C. Riscica meets with Congressman Tom Suozzi and District Mayors
 Discuss Federal and Local Issues

July 21, 2017 – Congressman Tom Suozzi invited the Mayors from his 3rd Congressional District to meet with him on Friday, July 21, 2017, at Chelsea Mansion in Muttontown to discuss local issues and receive an update on national issues. Mayor Kenneth C. Riscica attended the meeting along with 15 other Mayors (or their designees) from Plandome, North Hills, Great Neck Plaza, Thomaston, Glen Cove, East Hills, Roslyn and Old Brookville, among others.

In the meeting, which lasted approximately one hour, the Mayors gave the Congressman updates on local issues in their communities and the Congressman briefed the Mayors on his activities in Washington and on national issues. Air traffic, helicopter noise, environmental and other matters were addressed. As a member of the House Armed Services Committee,

Congressman Suozzi briefed the members on significant conflicts, on his travel to Afghanistan and the Middle East and on his discussions with the Defense Secretary and Secretary of State.

The meeting was informative and future meetings are being planned.
