PLANDOME HEIGHTS NEWS
Plandome Heights Honors Edmund Moores
on his 100th Birthday

The Board of Trustees of the Village of Plandome Heights honored Village resident Edmund Moores with a Proclamation recognizing the occasion of his 100th birthday.

Mr. Moores grew up in Astoria, NY, the son of immigrant parents where he had a spirited youth and worked in many jobs in family and local businesses. Using skills he learned as a youth in Astoria, Mr. Moores went on to become a Baker, serving proudly in this time honored trade for over 45 years. During World War II, Edmund served with distinction in the Pacific Theater of Operations in the United States Navy as a Baker Third Class stationed in Hawaii and where, in his spare time, he made necklaces out of Hawaiian shells that his family proudly wears to this day.

Edmund was married to his wife Rita for over 60 years raising two children and four grandchildren in their home in Bayside. Edmund moved into Plandome Heights to be with his daughter, Village Historian Phyllis Sternemann, a twenty year resident of the Village, and two grandchildren Nicole and Brian Sternemann after his beloved Rita passed in 2012. Edmund turned 100 years old on May 24, 2014.
