Plandome Heights Comments on Amended Town Redistricting Plan

Plandome Heights Mayor Kenneth C. Riscica and Civic Association President Marion Endrizzi comment on Town Board Decision to Amend its Redistricting Plan

Kenneth C. Riscica, Mayor of Plandome Heights said:

“The people of Plandome Heights are grateful to Supervisor Kaiman and the Town Board for hearing their voices and voting unanimously to amend the Redistricting Plan in a way that addresses their concerns without burdening any other community.”

Marion Endrizzi, President of the Plandome Heights Civic Association, said:

“The Plandome Heights Civic Association also thanks Supervisor Kaiman and the Town Board for their thoughtful consideration of our appeal on the Redistricting. We are also grateful for the overwhelming support we received from Greater Council of Manhasset Civic Associations, our neighboring Villages and associations and residents of Plandome Heights.”
