Manhasset Mayors Meet with New NCPD 6th Precinct
 Commander
 Discuss Public Safety

On September 8, 2022, the Manhasset Mayors assembled in Plandome Heights Village Hall for a working meeting with the new NCPD Commanding Officer for our Sixth Precinct, Inspector Mark Vitelli. Representing the Villages were Flower Hill Mayor Randall Rosenbaum, Munsey Park Mayor Lawrence Ceriello, Plandome Heights Mayor Kenneth C. Riscica and Plandome Manor Mayor Barbara Donno. Also attending was Deputy Inspector and Deputy Commanding Officer of the Sixth Precinct, Michael Dolan and Problem Oriented Policing (“POP”) officer Stephanie Papa. Plandome Mayor Tom Minutillo was unable to attend but was briefed after the meeting.

A full range of topics affecting the public safety of Village residents was discussed and action items were agreed upon during the hour and a half long meeting. Among the topics discussed were public safety, crime statistics and prevention, traffic enforcement, parking concerns, our parks and other matters. The consequences to residents of the recent “cashless bail” and related laws was also discussed.

Commenting on the meeting, Plandome Heights Mayor Kenneth C. Riscica said, “We appreciate the time and attention of our new 6th Precinct Commanding Officer Mark Vitelli. We continue to have a close working relationship with the NCPD and that relationship is key to enhancing public safety in our community.”
